Dear Mayor Cohn and Rye City Council Members,

I am writing to voice support for The Osborn's request to adjust its zoning restrictions. As a lifelong resident of Rye and now in independent living at The Osborn, I treasure it as a valuable institution - not only to its residents, but to the City, as well. Many of us continue to enjoy not just the comfort it offers, but most importantly, the shared history and collaboration with Rye in various activities and institutions. That's what brought me and my husband here years ago.

It is a hundred - year old part of our community, but in order to continue thriving The Osborn must compete with the increasing number of facilities coming on line in this area, offering similar services and ever more modern amenities. It is no longer the only wonderful game in town.

Unless it can be afforded the opportunity to meet the current and future demands of the market, I fear that The Osborn, always a leader in its field, will inevitably become less attractive if it cannot grow, not so much in size, but with the times.

Best regards,
