

Minutes Rye Cable and Communications Meeting for July 15 2015

In Attendance: Kate Conn (Acting Chair), Mary Ellen Doran, Ken Knowles, Susan Olson, Paula Fung and Nicole Levitsky (staff).

Non Profit Outreach Program

First Not for Profit intro meeting went well.

Chris from Rye Free Reading had a very positive response and is opening up inroads with Auxiliary RFRR Volunteers

He will also be hiring new staff to help with social media ...

Greg from the Lions Club has already signed up for one of the production classes and is also looking into doing a Lions program.

Next group of invites are Tracy Kay from the Westchester Childrens' Museum and Sheri Jordan from the Rye Historical Society

RTV Production Camp is running with 2 boys and 4 or 5 for the August session. New production class will be given on special effects. Staff and CCC members will be taking the first session

Clay and Gabe will be teaching the classes. It will be Clay's first time teaching. Our RTV Staff has been wonderful both full and part time... The board has been very pleased.

EBlast notification has been modified to a mobile friendly format so that iphones and Droids can display properly.

New Server has been purchased at a price that is considerably less than what was first offered. $15K versus $21k.

Signature series are being produced on schedule. Rye Views will be out in the next few days.

Weekly concert series at Rye Town Park with interviews are all being completed for cablecasting.

The Committee is hoping to get an update on Mary Hannon's candidacy status for the CCC Board.

School Channel is still airing black.

Teacher stepped in for the S. Klein lecture. He took care of all editing and it is now airing.

Nicole and Joel will be attending ACM conference in California this August (11-15)

Other Business:

There is still a need for more RTV visibility in the community. Auto magnet labels and shirts are being looked into.
Renewed discussion for an audit with CableVision. Looking to work with another community to reduce the cost.

There will be no Board meeting in August.
