Assistant Golf Course Superintendent: Rye Golf Club

Rye, NY

Club Information

Rye Golf Club is a private club located in Rye, NY. The club is owned and operated by the City of Rye. RGC is home to a unique Deveroux Emmet designed 18-hole golf course. The course is laid out on a little more than 100 acres of land and features the only views of the Long Island Sound from a golf course in Westchester County. The club has over 700 golfing members and hosts between 25,000 and 35,000 rounds of golf.

The golf course superintendent, Chip Lafferty, is completing his 18th season as the club's superintendent. Under Chip's tenure the golf course has experienced a significant increase in standards of maintenance and over all course conditions. The club is has recently invested in several golf course projects including greens expansions, installation of slit drainage, the addition of a new short game practice facility, and tree management under the advice of the USGA. A long term plan for the golf course includes developing significant improvements to the course's irrigation system in addition to other potential improvements.

Responsibilities

Rye Golf Club is seeking a highly motivated individual with knowledge in all aspects of golf course maintenance. The assistant superintendent will be responsible for planning and applying fertilizers and pesticides, supervising grounds staff, and working with the clubs geese-dog(s). The assistant superintendent will be responsible for ensuring that the maintenance staff is meeting all performance expectations in the absence of the superintendent. The assistant superintendent will be responsible for exercising sound judgement regarding maintenance decisions in the absence of the superintendent.
